

Grammar and Writing Web Resources

K-5

- Kids Spelling, Grammar, and Writing Games (http://www.netrover.com/~kingskid/writing/Kids_Writing.html): interactive games to practice sight words, typing, and other writing skills. This website has a list of email addresses of students who are looking for pen pals.
- Kids' Place Houghton Mifflin (www.eduplace.com/kids/hme/k_5/): various writing prompts, online grammar lessons, and published pieces by other students in the country
- Vocabulary and Spelling online games (www.manythings.org)
- Starfall (www.starfall.com) reading/phonics for K-1
- Games for Kids in the Stacks (www.scholastic.com/kids/stacks/games/?lnkid=stacks/nav/games/main): Click on the Writing Games tab on the left. You can write your own fantasy story and comic strips online.
- Fun Brain (www.funbrain.com/words.html): Online grammar games and quizzes
- Welcome to Scarvagnan (www.stufun.com/index.php?module=index&action=grammar): Learn grammar with animal characters. Some games are free to play.

Grades 5 and up

- Anigrammar (www.mcwdn.org/grammar/anigrammar.html): Explains grammar rules using pictures and simple language
- Sentence Builder (www2.actden.com/writ_den/tips/sentence/): Explain parts of speech with many examples. The section on frequently confused words are very helpful.

- Grammar Bytes (chompchomp.com/menu.htm): Powerpoint presentations to learn grammar on your own. There are youtube videos on various grammar points. Perfect for Grades 7-8.
- Grammar King (www.grammarking.com/index.htm): Start with a quick self-assessment of your grammar knowledge. You can send emails to ask the king your questions about grammar.
- Guide to Grammar & Writing (grammar.ccc.commnet.edu/grammar/): Grammar is explained at word, sentence, and paragraph levels. The FAQ (Frequently asked questions) section is most helpful!