

Dear Student,

Just like your reading, everyone in the ESL program at FACTS has an ESL level in reading, writing, speaking, and listening. These levels/numbers tell you what you are able to do in English and what you need to work on to become stronger readers, writers, speakers, and listeners of English.

Language Skill	Your Level
Listening
Speaking
Reading
Writing
Overall

At FACTS, we look at 3 different things to decide whether you will be working with an ESL teacher or not.

1. your ESL level (5 or higher)
2. your PSSA results (BASIC or higher)
3. your report card grades (C or higher)

Once you met all 2 criteria, you will exit from the ESL program. If you have any questions, please let Teacher Mayuko know. I'm here to answer any question you might have.

My goal for this year: _____
