➤ Challenge: Monitoring in New York

➤ Discussion
New York Context (1)

- There are 306 charter schools in New York State serving approximately 200,000 students from Buffalo to New York City.
- There are 4 authorizers in New York State.
  - The New York State Education Department (NYSED) administers the CSP grant.
  - There is limited human capital allocated to engage in risk monitoring and oversight for CSP grant recipients. Although there are more charter schools than in Washington, New York’s CSP program staff want to make the best use of their time and funds to support the work of new charter schools.
New York Context (2)

- NYSED has undertaken a few projects to quickly look at fiscal risk including an audit guide and a fiscal dashboard.
- With $21 million left to allocate in CSP funds, NYSED is looking to gauge fiscal risk but also set expectations to new charter schools regarding strong fiscal policies and procedures.
As NYSED staff is limited and the state is large, they would like to balance a mix of in-person monitoring and support with desk audits and webinars. Where would the best place to invest limited resources be?
